DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-4, drawn to a hepatitis C capsid polypeptide, classified in class 424, subclass 189.1.
- II. Claims 5-7, drawn to a eukaryotic pseudo-nucleocapsid, classified in class 530, subclass 826.
- III. Claims 8-13, drawn to a system for isolating an antagonists or agonist of viral capsid, classified in class 435, subclass 464.
- IV. Claims 14-16, drawn to a system for isolating an aptamer that catalyzing a viral capsid assembly, classified in class 435, subclass 91.1.
- V. Claims 17-19, drawn to a system for isolating aptamers that function to agonize or antagonize viral capsid assembly, classified in class 435, subclass 41.
- VI. Claims 20-29, drawn to a genetic construct comprising hepatitis C virus gene, classified in class 424, subclass 228.1.
- VII. Claim 30-38, drawn to a method for transforming a host cell with a genetic construct, classified in class 435, subclass 325.
- VIII. Claim 39-40, drawn to a recombinant self-assembly hepatitis C virus capsid comprising T cell epitope and tRNA, classified in class 424, subclass 192.1.
- IX. Claims 41-43, drawn to a method for immunizing a host animal, classified in class 514, subclass 44.
- X. Claim 44, drawn to a kit used for detecting an antibody to hepatitis C virus, classified in class 435, subclass 975.
- XI. Claim 45, drawn to another kit for detecting the hepatitis C virus, classified in class 435, subclass 975.
- XII. Claims 46-48, drawn to another self-assembled hepatitis C virus capsid, classified in class 424, subclass 196.11.

Art Unit: 1648

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions of Groups I, II, VI, VIII and X-XII are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions are directed to the structurally and functionally different products. For example, the product of the Group I is directed to a polynucleotide, whereas the product of the Group XI is directed to a kit.

Inventions of Groups III, IV, V, VII and IX are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions are directed to different methods that are not disclosed as capable of use together, but is used for different purposes. For example, the method of Group VII is used for producing a recombinant protein, whereas the method of Group IX is used for immunization.

Inventions I and IX are related as product and process of use. However, the inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product, such as a diagnostic assay.

Inventions of Group I and VII are related as process of making and product made. However, the inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process, such as a direct purification from hepatitis C virus.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above, the restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

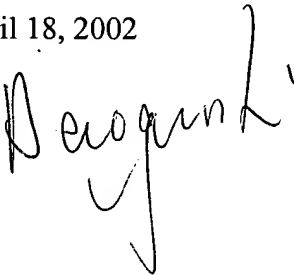

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
